

Building Bridges to Optimum Health

Autism is not Black & White

It's a Spectrum

A Free Conference

A community-academic dialogue including presentations and panel discussions on Autism,
Early Detection, Treatment, and Lifespan Support

Who should attend?

Autism Service Providers, Educators, Community Members, Caregivers, Families, Health Care Providers,
Social Service Providers, Students, Faith-Based Organizations, Researchers, People Living with Autism,
Social Workers, Physicians, Nurses, and Counselors 6 CEU's for Nurses

Holman United Methodist Church
3320 West Adams Blvd
Los Angeles, CA 90018

Thursday October 23, 2014

8:00AM - 3:30PM

Continental Breakfast, Lunch and Parking is provided FREE

Please register online or by telephone at <http://www.haafii.org/>

Telephone: (323)292-2002 Fax: (323)292-6121

Sponsored by

ASD Advocacy to Action: Planned Partnership of Under-Resourced Families in South Los Angeles (Autism Speaks Grant # 8939)
Autism Intervention Research Networks (Health Resources and Services Administration Grant # UA3MC11055)
Accelerating Excellence in Translational Science Center (AXIS NIH/NIMHD 2U54 MD007598-06); Project Export (NIH/NIMHD P20MD000182); UCLA Clinical and Translational Science Institute (NIH/NCATS/UCLA CTSI UL1TR000124) Healthy African-American Families II; UCLA Clinical and Translational Science Institute (grant NIH/NCATS/UCLA CTSI UL1TR000124) ; Los Angeles Research Institute at Harbor/UCLA Medical Center

Audifonos estarán disponibles para la interpretación en Español